DEATH OF MRS. E. L. OUSHMAN.

The Peaceful Ending of a Devoted Christian's Life.

Mrs. Blanche Jarvis Oushman, wife of Mr. E. L. Oushman and daughter of Mr. J. H. Jarvis, died at her home in this city Thursday evening at half-past nine o'clock.

This sad event was not unexpected, as Mrs. Oushman had been an invalid for some years, having consumption, and has been declining rapidly the past few weeks.

The deceased was born in this city not quite twenty-three years ago. She was the daughter of Mr. J. H. Jarvis and Mrs. Annie E. Jarvis. She was married August 28, 1901, to Mr. E. L. Oushman, who, with two sons and an infant daughter, survives her.

Some years ago Mrs. Oushman professed her faith in Jesus Christ and became a member of the First Presbyterian Church, with which her whole life had been associated. The genuineness and sincerity of her piety were very manifest in consistency of daily life in her patience under the cares and trials allotted to her in the illness of her children, and especially in her sweet resignation of spirit to the divine will in her own increasing feebleness, the necessary separation from her children, the early blighting of her earthly plans and hopes, and in the prospect and experience of departure from this world. Her end was peaceful and painless—just a quiet falling asleep.

To her father, husband and family, the deepest sympathy of many friends goes out in this season of their bereavement.

The funeral services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at three o'clock, to which all relatives and friends of the family are invited.

The following gentlemen will act as pall-bearers: Dr. D. B. Morris, J. M. Dell, G. B. Tison, Messrs. Oscar Morris, Fletcher Burnett, Clyde Carter, Wm. L. Hill, A. L. Vidal. They are requested to meet at the residence of J. H. Jarvis at 2:40 p. m.

Attention, Odd Fellows.

Members of Center Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., will meet at the lodge room at half-past 2 o'clock for the purpose of attending the funeral of Mrs. E. L. Oushman, wife of Brother Oushman, which will be held at 3 o'clock. J. I. BLAKE, N. G.

Call on C. F. Dorman, at Harper & Chase's music store, who is the local agent for the Warrington Woollen and Worsted Mills, Chicago, and he will show you the woollens and the proper styles for fall wear. Prices very reasonable. d2
